

LENGTH OF THE SCHOOL YEAR

Minimum Length of School Year: School shall actually be in session and classroom instruction offered for not less than 1080 hours with a minimum of 165 days of instruction each school year. Only where conditions beyond the control of school authorities make the maintenance of the term impossible, and the State Board of Education has been apprised and has expressed concurrence in writing, may school be maintained for less than a full year.

Notification of School-Hours Policy: Prior to October 15th of the applicable school year, the superintendent or their designee, shall notify the State Board of Education, in writing, that the district has adopted a school-hours policy and provide the State Board of Education with a copy of the school calendar as approved by the district's board of education.

Professional Development: No more than five days or 30 hours of classroom instruction time per school year may be used for professional development meetings.

Parent-Teacher Conferences: If parent-teacher conferences are held during a regular school day, as authorized by the district, parent-teacher conferences shall be counted as classroom instruction time for no more than 6 hours per semester, for a total of 12 hours per school year.
